WE GATHER TOGETHER

Prelude Harlan Otter

Words to Ponder:

God sets a plumb line to judge how we care for our neighbor. Jesus tells the parable of the Good Samaritan to teach us how to be a good neighbor. Everything hangs in the balance.

Call to Worship Martha McMahon

Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all of your mind.

We will worship God, the one we love.

Love your neighbor as yourself.

We will open our hearts to all God's children.

Opening Prayer

God of power and might, turn our hearts of stone into hearts of flesh. For only in loving can we lead lives worthy of your calling. Grant us the courage to live with the saints in the glory of your love. And fill us with your grace and peace, that we may know the richness of eternal life in your Spirit, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Passing of the Peace Of Christ Bill Florin

Love of God and neighbor is the path to eternal life. Rejoicing in the love that flows within, when we abide in Christ's peace, share this peace with your neighbor.

WE HEAR THE WORD

Prayer of Confession (in unison) Martha McMahon

Judge us in your righteousness, Holy One, and show us who we truly are, for we long to see ourselves as you see us. Against the plumb line of your justice, our ways seem out of balance, and our practices seem wanting. We yearn for the day when the powerful will no longer deny justice to the weak and destitute, or turn a blind eye to the wicked. We long for the time when those who live at ease will no longer ignore the plight of the poor, or turn away from those living paycheck to paycheck. Show us what it means to be a good neighbor, that our works may bear good fruit, and that our lives may shine the light of your justice. Amen.

Words of Assurance

Bill Florin

Eternal life is ours when we love the Lord our God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our strength, and with all our mind; and when we love our neighbor as ourselves.

Scripture Reading Colossians 1:1-14 Martha McMahon

Salutation

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

2 To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father.[²]

Paul Thanks God for the Colossians

3 In our prayers for you we always thank God, the [²] Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, 5 because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel 6 that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. 7 This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on our [²] behalf, 8 and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

9 For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's [²] will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 so that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. 11 May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, so that you may have all endurance and patience, joyfully 12 giving thanks to the Father, [²] who has enabled [²] you [²] to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. 13 He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, [²] the forgiveness of sins.

Gospel Reading John 19:25-27 Martha McMahon

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

25 An expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. [²] "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" 27 He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind and your neighbor as yourself." 28 And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live."

29 But wanting to vindicate himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" 30 Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and took off, leaving him half dead. 31 Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. 32 So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. 33 But a Samaritan while traveling came upon him, and when he saw him he was moved with compassion. 34 He went to him and bandaged his wounds, treating them with oil and wine. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him, and when I come back I will repay you whatever more you spend.' 36 Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" 37 He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Sending Hymn "This Is My Song" UMH#437

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Do not let us fall into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
