God of love and mercy, open our hearts to your presence as we worship you this day.

Whether our prayers are filled with celebration or with loud cries and tears, remind us that you are the source of our eternal salvation.

Give us the strength to respond faithfully to your transforming love, that the joy of your salvation might shine in and through us all.

Wipe away our wrongdoing,

WE HEAR THE WORD

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Jerry Jones

God of steadfast love and mercy, we have shielded our eyes from the evil and injustice in the world.

We have turned away from your forgiveness and your compassion, and from your wisdom and your guidance.

We have allowed our voices to be silent.

Cleanse us.

Purify us.

Remind us that we still have much to learn, and that you continue to teach us.

Fill us with your Holy Spirit, that our faith in you might be renewed.

In humble confidence, we pray. Amen

Gracious God, give us humble, teachable, and obedient hearts, that we may receive what you have revealed, and do what you have commanded. Amen.

*1st Reading

Hebrews 5:5-10

Jerry Jones

5 So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest but was appointed by<sup>[a]</sup> the one who said to him,

“You are my Son;
today I have begotten you”;

6 as he says also in another place,

“You are a priest forever,
according to the order of Melchizedek.”

7 In the days of his flesh, Jesus<sup>[b]</sup> offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. 8 Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered, 9 and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, 10 having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

*Gospel Reading

John 12:20-33

Jerry Jones

Some Greeks Wish to See Jesus

20 Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. 21 They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” 22 Philip went and told Andrew, then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. 23 Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. 24 Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain, but if it dies it bears much fruit. 25 Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. 26 Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor.

Jesus Speaks about His Death

27 “Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say: ‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. 28 Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.” 29 The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.” 30 Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. 31 Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. 32 And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people<sup>[a]</sup> to myself.” 33 He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

Generous and all-loving God, grant us the wisdom to know you more completely.
Give us the hope to live as your people.
Inspire us to give of our spirits more fully, in the faith that your promise is already within us.
As we give our gifts and tithes today, we recommit ourselves to your service and to the service of your people.
May we do so in response to your unending call that beckons us and leads us home.
We pray as followers of the glorified Christ. Amen.

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
